

Careers in education - where to look next:

www.skillsforschools.org.uk

tinyurl.com/fh2careers6

Find out more about building your skills at www.skillsbuilder.org

Jobs where you teach

Key skills

You could be:

- a nursery teacher
- a primary teacher
- a secondary teacher

Or perhaps you would like to work as a college lecturer or in adult education.

You might like these jobs because:

You love learning and want to inspire this in others. You want a job which keeps you busy, where no two days are the same and you get satisfaction from helping others.

Jobs where you help run things

Key skills

You could be:

- a receptionist
- a finance officer
- an exams officer

Or perhaps you would like to work in IT support.

You might like these jobs because:

You want to work in an office environment as part of a team. You are well-organised, have good IT skills and enjoy talking to a wide variety of people – both adults and children.

Jobs where you support students

Key skills

You could be:

- a teaching assistant
- a cover supervisor
- a learning mentor

Or perhaps you would like to be a parent support advisor or work in university counselling.

You might like these jobs because:

You want to work with young people, supporting them to overcome challenges. You are a good listener and can stay calm and patient in stressful situations.

Jobs where you take care of buildings & grounds

Key skills

You could be:

- a site supervisor
- a cleaner
- a facilities manager

Or perhaps you would like to work as a caretaker.

You might like these jobs because:

You get satisfaction from mending broken objects, organising or cleaning. You are a good problem solver, prefer an active job and enjoy working as part of a team.

